ADAWE – 7 women of the voice and drum

"This is ADAWE. This is music from Africa, from America. Spirit sent. Heart felt. This is skin on skin, wood on wood, voices on air. The first heartbeat. Reality. Put your ear to Earth and listen. This is ADAWE."

ADAWE

"...the top music story at this year's festival was undoubtedly Adaawe, an L.A.-based rhythm and vocals outfit that featured seven talented and diverse women. Oh, there were other anticipated performers (Mickey Hart) the crowd, but Adaawe blew away its audiences with its mix of hip-hop, percussion, funk, Gospel-infused lyrics and pure joy. The women of talent from Kenya, Morocco...as well as the United States, performed times and became the talk of the festival." – Chico News

ADAWE is seven dynamic, diverse women creating rich organic music and drum, which comes from the heart and speaks to the soul! In the tradition of Ghana, West Africa, women gather in the moonlight to create songs about life's joys and sorrows. Their spirit of celebration and the inspiration behind ADAWE.

ADAWE performs their high energy fusion of African rhythm, Gospel, original funk locally and nationally at colleges, performing arts venues and festivals. They have headlined such venues as Cerritos Center for the Performing Arts.

Vision
 Calabash Collective offers excellent independent music to expand the spirit, heart and mind. It is an artist-driven organization of Los Angeles musicians committed to quality conscious music, and a record label with a new paradigm: artists own their music, and bring their music to the global community without compromising its uniqueness and vision. Calabash Collective presents strong artists of various genres - world, jazz, soul, folk and new age - whose shared audiences grow through appreciation of the high quality and style of all Collective releases. They also believe in giving back to the community through benefit events and strengthening the next generation through arts education. From its music to its philosophy, Calabash Collective is an artists' record label with soul.

SPiRiT Jacqueline Fuentes, "Amo la Vida" www.jacquelinefuentes.com
 Chilean diva with an enchanting voice. Jacqueline carries on the legacy of the New Song movement of Latin America, celebrating struggles for freedom and human rights. Her song, "Sinuoso Tropicico" is featured on the new Putumayo World Music critically acclaimed compilation, "Women of Latin America", and has already sold thousands of copies.

HEART Joselyn & wild roots, "ShapeShifting" www.joselynwilkinson.com
 Soulful, funky, spiritual Venice-based songstress. Joselyn Wilkinson delivers an uplifting debut release with amazing range, world percussion, spoken word and lovely instrumentation produced by Kevin T. Williams. Special guests include Leon Mobley of Ben Harper. Joselyn has been featured on 90.7 FM KPFK radio Los Angeles, and many web radio stations and sites.

MIND Don Barrozo, "Blue Talk" www.donbarrozo.com
 Jazz trumpeter with a haunting melodic voice. Don Barrozo's debut album, "Blue Talk", is ten compelling original compositions, which recall the music of trumpet icons ranging from Herb Alpert to Don Cherry, and of course, Miles Davis. Legendary drummer James Gadson, who appears on "Blue Talk" says, "(Don) plays it real slick, every note means something".
